WORLD PREMIERE
Presented in Association with the Cultural Festival of Gay Games VI Sydney

THE STORY

The story of Lindy and Michael Chamberlain and the loss of their baby Azaria near Uluru is one of the defining moments in Australian history. From this unforgettable story comes a compelling and dramatic opera by Moya Henderson, in its world premiere production.

In Lindy, Moya Henderson and her librettist Judith Rodriguez have created a poetic and moving meditation on the nature of truth and hypocrisy, on Lindy's faith and courage and on the myths of the dreamtime, all set within a melodic and communicative musical landscape that creates a powerful framework for the opera's dramatic events.

Some of the finest singers in this country portray the many multiple roles in the work, with Australian soprano Joanna Cole as Lindy Chamberlain and David Hobson as Michael Chamberlain.
